Values

We are a Christian Values based school. We create an environment in which children love to learn, where they drive the choices made about their learning and where they develop social and relationship skills which will last throughout their lives. Our value for September is Friendship.

Star of the Week

Class 1: Jessica for fantastic listening and enthusiastic animal recall during our Open the Book session.

Class 2: Martha for her fantastic sound knowledge and accurate counting!

Class 3: Maisy for trying her best in everything this week.

Class 4: Izzy for being such an amazing role model in class and for starting Year 4 with such enthusiasm.

Children's Page

"We have done some painting. I painted a car. It was green and red with black wheels!" Effie, Class 1.

"I liked playing the Teddy Counting game. It made me laugh when he said "Yummy". Phoebe, Class 2.

"I've enjoyed writing about Roald Dahl. It was his birthday on 13th September". Scott, Class 3.

"Our topic is the Stone Age. On Wednesday we went outside to see what kind of stone there was around our school. We found out most of them were made from sand stone". Katie, Class 4.

"This week we have learnt about the Highwayman. We wrote a monologue (a voice in the head speech). We also played football with Mr Jones –it was fun!” Evan, Class 5.

Netball league update

Due to work in the hall at Ludlow Leisure Centre not being completed, Miss Bowen has been informed that netball league matches will not start until after the half term holiday. Miss Bowen may arrange some alternative matches over the next few weeks. We will inform parents of venues/times once confirmed.

Number and letter of the week for Class 1

For week commencing 17th September, the number is 1 and letter is A.

Birthdays

This week we have celebrated the birthdays of Molly, Alex, Zack and Adriano.

Achievement Assembly

Well done to Zack who received his Swimmer of the Week award for “Super push and glide”.
